

Can a state society get fax consent from its members for all related entities, including chapters, on a properly worded consent form? Chapter membership is required and member records are in a common database. It will be even more onerous if each entity must request separate consent and members will not like having to file multiple forms.